

Wisconsin do not call list should be kept and should be passed federal to include all states. The telemarketers call at very inconvenient times and when told you are not interested they call back a few days later to try again, and no body is there.